The Executive Board of the N.J. Urban League, held an informal meeting at the home of the President, Mrs. Garner. Present were Dean Lichtenberger, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Jennifer, Mrs. Wilson, Mr. Lett.

In a brief discussion on persons acceptable for the Juvenile Judge ship, it was pointed out that Judge Harry Lindeman seems to be the governor's choice. His approach is extremely legalistic.

In the new housing project there will be some units with shower rooms.

Mrs. Turner's letter of resignation as matron was read.

The Executive Sec'y pointed out the necessity of a competent and mature stenographer who could make preliminary interviews, sifting out the persons who should see the different workers. It was the consensus of opinion that applicants should be received on a broad scale.

The house supervision has been taken over by Mrs. Mrs. Nichols.

A communication had been rec'd from the Welfare Federation requesting the League not to exceed its 1944 budget until the allotments had been decided upon.

Attention was called to the unaudited annual report - Staff turnover was noted.

Natl'l Urban League has inaugurated the "Luv's Friends" Award to be given for outstanding interracial work.

Annual meeting was discussed briefly.
It is time to be thinking of candidates for the local award for outstanding inter-racial work.

It was suggested that the printing of a publicity booklet on the aims etc.
of the Urban League be subsidized.

The group then joined the Newark
Inter-racial Council also meeting in Mr. Garner's home and enjoyed a social hour with refreshments.
